

FASHION FOOTNOTES

AS THE AUTUMN EVENINGS LENGTHEN INTO WINTER

don't surrender to the darkness of the days. Step into a world of fantasy and secret romance in these dream raiments. If you've ever thought of yourself as an aesthete (or a princess) then these are the clothes for you.

Ophelia:
A dress to drown in
A delicate pattern of fragile flowers for those fairytale dreams come true. The short sleeves are flared, echoing the line of the dress. White on black, maroon, or purple

Crepe £6-15s
Affaires de Coeur

Demurely provocative. Provocatively demure. White diamond motif on black, brown, or maroon.
Crepe £6-19-6

The Prime of Miss Jean Raleigh

Black, schoolgirl pinafore dress, set off with wet-look bands and silver buttons. Washable after that long, hard ride in the country. Bicycle in hard black enamel with sexy zinc accessories.

Courtelle jersey £5-18
The Pair £6
Freedom Fighter

Establish your rights in this high waisted velvet midi skirt. In mulled wine or old porter, with small flowered motif; this is the style to knock them dead.

Velvet £3-17s

Isadora Angel Dress

Simple pre-Raphaelite line with languorous pleats. Full and flowing in fragrant lilac. A dress to go anywhere in. Be bold. Be noticed.

Tricel £6-10s

Clothes available in sizes 10, 12, 14, 16 from Fanny Boutique, The Arcade, Stirling

Models: Viv and Roberta
Photos: Michel Cartier-Bresson

* Incorporating Vague and The Budgerigar Gazette.

